Hefty Disclaimers

- When I stand here today, I stand completely and utterly alone. My opinions are my own... although this time they're backed by research.
- I funded this study on my own; don't blame anyone else if you're not happy with the outcome.
- I did not ask for permission; don't assume that it was given.
- If your feelings, pride, or reputation are injured by facts, you can have a hug, but I will not remove content to protect the proponents of derisking.

Knowledge Is Power...

Research is what happens when nerds get really angry...

But a boxer who fights
angry gets knocked down...

So we funded research, and we're sharing it.
